

As a hard of hearing person who has been using CapTel, I find this device helpful to me. I use it with many business calls. I have some hearing but need to refer to the captions. I support and ask the FCC to recognize CapTel as a fundable communication service for me.